

DELIGHT IN OUR HOUSE LIBATIONS

"Inspire me, 'fil t lisp an' wink"

THE BOBBY BURNS DINING AND COCKTAIL ROOM, 1938

In 1938, after the repeal of Prohibition, the Tam O'Shanter was asked by its guests to make space for drinking wine and cocktails. So we expanded the restaurant by purchasing the grocery store next door and built the Tam O'Shanter's first cocktail lounge and bar, the Bobby Burns Dining and Cocktail Room, as well as additional dining rooms. In the late '30s you could buy a pint of California's favorite beer, "Lucky Lager," for fifteen cents and a glass of wine for fifty cents. Times may have changed prices, but they haven't changed the good times we have with our mates.

We're proud to be in our 10th decade of continuous service, and we're proud to welcome you to Los Angeles' oldest established permanent non-floating restaurant still operated by its founders' younger kinsmen.

FEATURED FLIGHTS

The Great Wall O' Scotch

In the 1950's The Tam O'Shanter installed a Great Wall O' Scotch to showcase bottles
Lawrence Frank and Walter Van de Kamp collected on thier trips abroad.

Three years ago we brought back The Great Wall of Scotch as a nod to our past and a reminder to our guests that we are now again, THE destination in the United States for Scotland's oldest and dearest export. We have collected over 200 offerings from Scotland and a hundred or so more from around the globe. Not only will you see many familiar names but you will find rare offerings that are hardly ever, if ever, seen outside of Scotland.

*These samplers feaature some of the best and rarest from our world renowned collection

EVER SINCE 1922, THE MELLOW TAM O'SHANTER HAS BEEN RIGHT HERE.

It's the oldest established permanent, non-floating restaurant in Los Angeles still operated by its founders' younger kinsman. We originally considered it a quiet pastoral inn, since Los Feliz Boulevard (formerly Tropic) was just an unpaved country road traversed by rabbits and rabbit hunters, in that order.

Your hosts for 90 years,
The Frank and Van de Kamp Families
